

Learn to Smile

Once, I had a piano exam. I had been practising the piano very hard these day. My mother was both pleased and delighted to see me practice. She also told me not to pressure myself too much, and believe in oneself. After hearing what my mother said, I learnt to smile in the face of everything. Therefore, I succeeded in the piano exam. My mother felt happy for me. Sure, learning to smile is a very tough thing. However, we still need to learn to smile in life.
